

Code of Conduct

Dear Parents/Guardians and Students,

In order to achieve the major aims of the camp and ensure everyone's safety, it is important that we are guided by certain code of conduct expected to be abided by all our campers, even though we believe our campers shall be of good behaviour.

Kindly read thoroughly, sign and submit at the point of registration. Failure to act in accordance with any of the instructions attracts minor or major sanctions. Items 1 to 14 are minor offenses while 15 – 20 major offenses.

Thank you for your anticipated cooperation as we look forward to working with you!

Major Camp Rules & Regulations

1. All items such as electronic gadgets (laptops, phones, ipads, games and related items), headphones, chargers, etc. must be registered at the point of registration upon arrival to the camp. You may not claim any gadget not registered when found and cannot be taken out of the camp. This is to ensure the safety of all gadgets.
2. All gadgets must be submitted 5 minutes before any class, siesta and light – out time. Please comply once you hear the notification bell.
3. Gadgets may be used during breaks no matter how short. We can assure you, you won't be that bored.
4. Any camper who damages any of the facilities provided at the venue shall be held responsible for it. Do ensure that you maintain a clean environment. Use the bin basket always and ensure that the rest rooms are also left clean.
5. Discussions during classes shall not be allowed unless such are relevant to the class in question and as advised by the coach.
6. All campers are to note that the camp is an academic and not a religious camp. However, people's religions must be respected. No form of prayer should disturb a fellow roommate at any time. On Sunday, while the Christians (all denominations) have their service, the Muslims shall also be having theirs.
7. You are coming for a gifted camp. Hence, academic activity is our priority. We will appreciate if all dressings are moderate. Please do not be flashy in your dressing to avoid distractions from the main goal which is learning Mathematics, Sciences, Computer Programming, among others.
8. During any movie night, a clip voted by two – third majority shall be shown to everyone. You may not stay in your room at this time but you may have your gadgets at this time to keep you busy should you prefer to have fun with yours.
9. No male camper shall be allowed or be found in a female's dormitory and vice versa on any occasion.
10. There shall be no form of discussion after light – out time. An impromptu routine check shall be in place to check this during siesta and at night. While a male adult checks on the boys, a female adult shall check on the girls.
11. Please note that laptops are not allowed in classes except Coding Class. However, if requested by the coach of any class, you should not be found surfing the internet, playing games, videos, music, etc. The coach will advise accordingly.

Code of Conduct

12. We are aware that campers, being young adults, might have reasons to argue. However, no camper is allowed to take laws into his/her hands. Any form of conflict should be communicated to the nearest camp official. We can assure you, all issues shall be resolved amicably.
13. In as much as we want our campers to look smart, all campers are expected to dress decently, this especially applies to the female campers. No sagging, especially by the boys, is allowed in the camp. Be a good ambassador of your school.
14. No camper is allowed to take or use another camper's property without the consent of the owner. We also advise that everyone locks his/her box(es) when leaving the room at all times. Going back to the room shall be monitored.
15. We expect all campers to make friends with others irrespective of the age, gender, academic ability, social class, skin colour, ethnic background, religion, etc. There is zero – tolerance for discrimination, racism, etc. in the camp.
16. We also have zero tolerance for bullying. No camper should bully another camper. These include physical assault, any form of abuse, name calling, mockery, etc. Kindly report any case of bullying to the camp officials.
17. The use of foul language is not allowed within the camp from anyone to anyone no matter what happens, said or done to you. Make a report immediately.
18. No camper should have adult related content on his/her gadgets (laptop, tablets, phones, etc.). Contents include pictures, video clips, etc. All campers are also expected to stay off such website site.
19. While campers are allowed to mingle with one another and make new friends, no two campers of opposite gender shall be allowed out of plain sight. Ensure that an adult is close by.
20. When accused of any offence, please note that you might be asked to turn in your gadget for the purpose of investigation if related. You are expected to comply without any hesitation.

Possible Sanctions for Minor Offenses

- Seizure of gadget for a specific duration of time or a day (if the gadget is your phone, your parents can reach you on our lines).
- Denial from participation in fun activities such as general games or sports.

Possible Sanctions for Major Offenses

- Denial from getting your certificate of merit/award.
- Withdrawal of medal won.
- Expel from camp within 24 hours of the offense. Please note that refunds shall not be made in this case.
